INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND

7 January

TO : Harodd

FROM: Ian

I have had unexpectedly to make plans to go to England for next week -- an old grandmother of mine, who had been ailing for a long time, has died and we agreed that I should attend the funeral next Tuesday.

I came across this article in the New York Review of Books, which does not say anything new but may be of interest to you.

With love to you and Lil,

Yours Ian
